

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

If you are selling or trading your vehicle with Auto 66, we need to know who the registered owner of the vehicle is. To check this, we access information held by third parties.

The following information may be obtained:

- a) that their name and address may be obtained from the motor vehicle register; and
- b) the relevant gazette notice under which the User is authorised to access the information; and
- c) the circumstances in which this may occur and what the information will be used for; and
- d) that any person can notify the Registrar that they do not wish to have their name(s) and address(es) made available under an authorisation.
